

Richard Fabricius

Richard has worked at Fat Prophets for over nine years. He is a senior member of Fat Prophets Sydney based wealth management team. Having worked within the investment management industry for over thirty years, first of all in London, then Chicago and now Sydney, Richard has accumulated a wealth of experience as a diversified portfolio manager, client adviser and business manager. After spending the early part of his career in private client stockbroking he then joined Robert Fleming Investment Management as a portfolio manager. This was followed by senior roles at Bank in Liechtenstein, where he Chaired the London investment committee, and Aberdeen Asset Management